

Accommodation in Chania

For your ease we provide some accommodation choices for the City of Chania. The following list is by no means exhaustive. It is a product of our personal research and it aims solely to provide you with support, in case you need it. It is important to us that you know that we do not have any trade relationship affiliation, or partnership with the hotels listed, and we do not receive any compensation or benefits from them. If you choose any of these, please take into consideration that we cannot be held accountable for the accuracy of their information, their availability, or the quality of these places.

As Chania is a worldwide destination and September is still high season, we strongly encourage you to book your flights and accommodation as soon as you complete your registration to our event.
